

INDUSTRY NEWS

INDUSTRY NEWS

Staying Ahead of Industry Developments

The working-at-height industry continues to evolve through technological advancements, updated standards, and improved safety practices.

Keeping informed enables organizations to continuously improve their safety performance and maintain compliance with changing requirements.

Topics Covered

- Industry Standards Updates
- OHS Legislative Changes
- New Fall Protection Technologies
- Engineering Innovations
- Safety Best Practices
- Case Studies
- Training Developments

Key International References

- ISO
- European Committee for Standardization (CEN)
- International Labour Organization (ILO)
- International Safety Equipment Association (ISEA)
- Global Working at Height Associations

How DECAWAT Assists

DECAWAT continuously monitors developments within the safety industry and shares practical information, technical guidance, and compliance updates to help clients make informed decisions.

Stay Informed

Follow DECAWAT for the latest updates on:

- Working at Heights
- Roof Safety
- Lifeline Systems
- Compliance Requirements
- Training Opportunities
- Engineering Innovations

